Thai boy come with nosebleeds

Equipment
1		8
2		9
3		10
4		11
5		12
6		13
7		14

Procedure
0	Greet the patient, introduce himself, ask the patient's name, ask permission, and state the purpose of asking for the history no medical term
1	history taking nosebleed Which side begins to flow, one side or both sides, color, amount of bleeding, frequency, how many times per day? duration of bleeding Easy or difficult to stop flow (>5min) How to stop yourself/first aid?
2	Has it been before, how long, and how often when you have symptoms such as playing with toys, playing outdoors for a long time, picking and scratching your nose with a strong snot Factors that increase or decrease
3	Other symptoms and history Bad odor, nasal/face pain, runny nose, cough, sneezing, fever, headache, vomiting blood. blood transfusion Bleeding point jaundice, yellow eyes, abdominal pain Fainting/unconsciousness
4	History of snoring/wheezing/intermittent apnea, congenital diseases such as allergies, blood diseases such as (leukemia, VWD, ITP, APDE, Hemophilia), liver disease, kidney disease, genetic disease (at least 2 diseases).
5	History of accidents in the head/face area or picking, scratching, scratching, blowing your nose strongly History of foreign bodies in the nose, see or not, what is it and how has it been treated? a history of previous drug use, eg. aspirin,NSAID,Warfarin,ATB(Cefalosporin)chemical
6	Travel history, such as boarding a plane History of bleeding that is difficult to stop when a wound or from minor surgery Bleeding easily
7	Family history of allergies or blood diseases such as leukemia, hemophilia, ITP, history of eating fruits and vegetables

